Business Law Department Welcomes Three Lawyers Brian Chillman returns as new Partner

The partners at McTague Law Firm are pleased to welcome back Brian Chillman to the partnership within the Business Law Department. Also joining the department are Jeffrey Slopen as Counsel, and Steven Spriggs as an Associate Lawyer.

Jeff MacKinnon, partner in the Business Law department said, "Jeff, Brian and Steven bring with them a wealth of knowledge and experience and most importantly, they share our firm's client first focus to the practice of law. The addition of Jeff, Brian, and Stephen reinforces McTague's status as a premiere provider of legal services to the region well into our next 100 years."

Mr. Chillman's practice is focused in the areas of corporate/commercial, real estate and trust law. Returning to the firm where he launched his career in corporate law, Mr. Chillman brings a wealth of experience in corporate finance, reorganizations, governance and acquisitions and mergers. He also acts regularly for not-for-profit organizations providing governance, privacy and other advice. Mr. Chillman has recently been appointed Lawyer Member of the Ontario Consent and Capacity Board.

"It's been a pleasure returning to the team at McTague where I first established a solid foundation for my career. This firm has a history of having an outstanding reputation in Windsor for corporate law," said Chillman. "Together with Mr. MacKinnon, Mr. Slopen and Mr. Spriggs, we have a strong department with an extensive amount of expertise in corporate law to support our clients."

Mr. Slopen practises in the areas of business law, corporate finance, taxation and real estate development. He is ranked as a "Best Lawyers in Canada" since 1988. Mr. Slopen is licensed to practice law both in Ontario and in the state of Michigan.

Mr. Steven Spriggs was called to the Ontario Bar in 2015 and his focus is in the areas of corporate/commercial and real estate law. He is a graduate of the University of Windsor and the University of Detroit Mercy.
